HELD AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH THURSDAY.

The churches of Canyon will join in a union Thanksgiving service to be held at the First Christian Church at 10:00 o'clock Thursday morning. The services will continue for one hour. Rev. L. R. Hudson, pastor of the Christian Church, will preach at this service.

Owing to the fact that no other activities are scheduled for Canyon on Thanksgiving, it is expected that a large number will attend the services this morning.

Baptist Banquet Attended By 277 Tuesday Evening

A Stewardship-Fellowship banquet was held Tuesday evening at the Baptist church for the purpose of making plans for the 1932 church budget and to afford a friendly get together for the church members.

The guests assembled in the main auditorium and after a short musical program by a College orchestra under the direction of C E. Strain, the group passed into the dining room. The delicious supper was prepared by ladies of the church and served in the dining room which was attractively decorated with autumn flowers and pot plants. Rev. C. G. Howard acted as toastmaster for the evening.

G. S. Hopkins, State Sunday School secretary of Texas, gave the principal address of the evening, a talk on stewardship and the church budget.

Dr. J. A. Hill of the College make a short talk in which he spoke of the need of the modern day world for Christ and the teachings of Christ.

An interesting program was given which included a reading by Miss Flo Terry, songs by a male quartet; a solo by Mrs. Clarence Huber, a reading by Miss Margaret Benge and several short talks by members of the church.

By actual count 277 persons were served at the banquet table.

Fellowship Subject Rotary Club Tuesday at the Luncheon

Rev. Wes C. Kunze made a very fine talk Tuesday at the luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club on the subject of Fellowship. Mr. Kunze is chairman of the Fellowship committee of the Club.

The Club will entertain the Buffalo football squad next Tuesday. The Panhandle Rotary Club will be here to put on an inter-city program on Dec. 8th, and the Canyon High School Eagles will be entertained December 15th.

Guests of the club Tuesday were N. L. Mudd, R. E. Wertz, Jack Allen, Arch Huntsley and G. W. Scott of Amarillo.

Mr. Kunze pointed out the fact that our friendships very largely affect our lives, either for good or evil. What we are today is largely on account of our associations and friendships of the past. He illustrated from his own personal experience and for his own life. Reared in the rough environments of a South Texas ranch, he was lead to the ministry through the influence of friends—good men and women. He pointed out the fact that a Catholic and a Jew had had such a great influence in his life, and had helped him in his study for the ministry, therefore his sense of taking every man for what he was worth regardless of creed or race.

A high compliment was paid to the men and women of Canyon who had been his friends since he became a minister here. Mr. Kunze closed by reading a number of quotations regarding friendship which he had gleaned from the field of literature.

WILL VISIT GIRL SCOUTS HERE NEXT TUESDAY

Miss Mary White, member of the national camp advisory staff of Girl Scouts, will visit the organization in Canyon next Tuesday, according to announcement received here.

Neal Edwards of White Deer visited Sunday in the home of Mrs. B. Brewer and family.

AMARILLO SCENE W. T.—McMURRY GAME NEXT FRI.

HARD BATTLE AHEAD FOR BURTON'S MEN.

McMurry Has Had Successful Season, and Defeated Sul Ross Badly Last Saturday.

The annual football game between the West Texas State Teachers College Buffaloes and the McMurry College Indians will be played in Amarillo next Friday afternoon, November 27, under the auspices of the Tri-State Fair Association, and the greatest football classic in the history of West Texas is expected to be staged.

One win out of six encounters is the record that the West Texas Buffaloes holds against the McMurry Indians. Since 1925 these two schools have been grid rivals and only last season was the Herd able to scalp the Indians and only by the narrow margin of 6 to 3 at that.

The Big Coach would be taking things easier if there wasn't such a one-sided history of wins for McMurry. "But that's the way it stands and we will have to take things as they are," stated the Buff Mentor, while sending the Herd through the regular practice drills Friday afternoon. "The only thing that we can do is to try and upset that record, when we meet those Medley Indians next week," he continued.

McMurry Has Good Record

Out of five wins that McMurry has taken from the Buffs, there has been one a wful wollop, that being the licking which came in 1927 when the Buffs were turned back 21 to 0. In 1929 the teams were almost evenly matched; however the Indians rode the Buffaloes for a 19 to 16 defeat.

The Buff coaches are making preparations to open up one of the greatest offensive drives ever attempted by any WestT exas eleven and at the same time are working on the defense in such a manner as to allow the Indians but little ground.

Whether "Sad Sam" will urge an offensive aerial attack is uncertain, but he is leaving nothing undone in being prepared to stop the Indians, should an air attack be started by them. McMurry is said to have an excellent forward passing machine and to have won most of their ground by that route this year, but the Buffs are working on pass defense and should be ready to break up such an attack.

This football game is being presented by the Tri-State Fair Association as one of the splendid attractions for the Texas State Teachers Association convention, which will be held in Amarillo the same week, and anyone failing to witness this football encounter between these two schools, will miss a great grid classinc.

Community Chest Program Named By Mrs. Kunze

For the information of those who last year were, and this year will be, interested in the method of collecting and distributing clothing for the relief of those in need, the Federation of Womens' Clubs under which auspices this work is carried on, announces that much the same methods will be used this year as last year. The drive will begin next week with the Community Chest Matinees, given by courtesy of Mr. Wooten of the Olympic Theater. The price of admission for each performance will be at least one garment per person. It is suggested that adults try to attend the first performance and children the second. The Repository will be in Gamble's Drug Store, as last year.

More definite announcement as to the Matinee performance will be made later. Everybody is urged to cooperate with the committee in the earnest attempt to reduce any suffering from lack of necessary clothing this winter to a minimum.

Mrs. W. C. Kunze, Chairman.

Filling Station Held Up Wednesday Night; Loss $15.00

The Gulf Filling Station, just north of the viaduct, was held up last Wednesday night, and three men got away with $15.00 in cash Rubert Hooks was in charge of the station, owned by David Clark. About 10 o'clock the men drove up and ordered gas. When handed a bill, Hooks went into the station for change. Turning to leave the station, he faced guns in the hands of the men, who took the money in the cash register. He was securely tied to a cot and a flour sack stuffed into his mouth. A man in the small eating house adjoining was tied in a chair before the three drove away.

Methodist Student Choir to Present Cantata Dec. 13

The student choir of the Methodist Church will present a short cantata entitled "The Christ Child," by Bliss, on Sunday evening, December 13, just before the beginning of the Christmas holidays.

This cantata is an unusually beautiful and short arrangement in both text and music combined with the scriptural story in pictures.

The Christmas Cantata is an annual program sponsored by the Methodist Student Choir, assisted by other local talent not in the regular choir. Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, director of the choir, states that she can use fifty more voices and that the next rehearsal will be held at the Methodist Church Wednesday evening, Dec. 2, at 6:45. Local soloists will be used for all the special numbers.

Fifty Automobiles Needed Friday to Bring Teachers to Palo Duro Park and To The College For a Short Visit

Fifty automobiles from Canyon are needed to be at the south side of the Amarillo Municipal Auditorium Friday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock in order to bring the visiting teachers to the Palo Duro Canyon and to visit the College plant.

Amarillo will furnish 150 cars for the trip, according to O. V. Vernon, secretary-manager of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce.

The cars will drive away from the auditorium as soon as loaded, and will drive to Canyon, turning east on Fourth Avenue, going to the Palo Duro Park. The drive along the rim of the Canyon will be made allowing the teachers who wish to get out to do so far a few minutes.

Returning to Canyon, the campus of the College will be inspected, and those who wish to do so will be taken through the buildings. It is thought that only a few of the visiting teachers will desire to make an inspection of the College plant owing to the fact that most of them will wish to return to Amarillo as soon as possible.

If the weather is good, it is expected that at least 1000 teachers will desire to make the trip.

Car owners who have not been seen about the use of their machine should phone Fred E. Wortham, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, or Clyde W. Warwick by Thursday noon. Every car possible is desired to make the trip.

Life of Edison Chapel Program Subject Saturday

The Life of Thomas Alva Edison was the subject of the Assembly program at the College, Saturday morning, with Dan Aynesworth, presiding. All those taking part on the program were pupils in the Demonstration High School.

Tommie Service gave a talk, "The Life and Achievements of Edison," J. C. Baker, Jr. told how Edison's inventions relate to the everyday life of the people.

Alvin Ream, Russell Dixon and Charles Stratton gave a pantomime of a scene which might have occurred at the World's Fair in 1893 when phonographs were listened to by means of ear tubes.

The High School Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Miss Ada Clark, sang a number of Mr. Edison's favorite songs, including "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen."

The program included an exhibit of the phonograph of 1877, 1895, 1903, 1906 and the present time. The phonographs were shown thru the courtesy of Mr. Mateer, who made the model of the first, and the second remodeled; Mr. G. B. Bourland who furnished the type using rubber records; Mrs. J. S. Humphreys who loaned the 1906 model which had belonged to her mother, and the College Music department which loaned the present day type.

Mrs. Tommie Montfort was chairman of the committee of teachers who assisted the pupils. Other members were Mr. W. L. Vaughn, Miss Helen White Moore, Mr. W. D. Mateer and Miss Ada Clark.

College students pronounced it the best chapel program of the year, and a large number of town and out-of-town visitors were pleased with it.

Red Cross Roll Call Made Saturday In Business Section

The Red Cross Roll Call was made Saturday afternoon in the business section of Canyon under the direction of Rev. L. R. Hudson and Mrs. W. H. Stroud.

Rev. Hudson stated this morning that complete returns had not been received, as some of the workers had not reported. It is estimated that the roll call brought in less money than last year.

Whether or not sufficient funds were received to put on a public health nurse in the schools has not been ascertained.

Dr. J. A. Hill Invited By President to Capitol

Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the West Texas State Teachers College is among the college presidents of Texas who have been invited to a conference soon to take place in Washington. The invitation reads as follows:

"The President of the United States invites Dr. J. A. Hill to attend the meeting of the president's conference on Home Building and Home Ownership which is called in the City of Washington, December second to fifth, nineteen hundred and thirty-one."

Since this conference takes place at the same time as the annual meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, it will be impossible for Dr. Hill to attend.

TEACHERS OF STATE COMING TO CONVENTION

Several Prominent Out-of-State Educators to Be Present

STARTS THURSDAY

First Time Annual Meeting Ever Held North of Fort Worth

The annual meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association, which begins with a great Thanksgiving service in the City Auditorium of Amarillo on Thursday morning at ten o'clock, and continues through Saturday afternoon, is of unusual interest to this college because of the excellence of the program which has been arranged by the President, J. C. Cochran, and his co-workers and because it is the first time in the fifty years of the Association's existence that a meeting has been held north of Fort Worth. Hundreds of Panhandle teachers, many of whom are ex-students of W. T., will have their first opportunity to attend the State meeting.

Besides six great general sessions, which will be held in the City Auditorium, there will be forty sectional meetings, meeting the needs and interests of teachers and administrators from every type of school found in Texas. The sectional meetings will be featured by the appearance on their programs of leaders in Texas educational affairs, while the general sessions will give the Texas teachers an opportunity to hear outstanding educators in inspirational and informational addresses.

Out of State Speakers

Out-of-state educators who will contribute to the success of the meeting include Superintendent Willis A. Sutton of Atlanta, Georgia, retiring president of the National Education Association; Miss Florence Hale, State Rural School Supervisor, Augusta, Maine, president-elect of the National Education Association; and Miss Sarah M. Sturtevant, Professor of Education, Columbia University. Dr. William John Cooper, United States Commissioner of Education had been selected for a place on the program, but circumstances arising after he had accepted the invitation made it impossible for him to come.

Each year the Association tries to have on its program at least one person representing some field other than formal education. This year, Faustin Wirkus, formerly a United States Marine, and now known as "The White King of La Gonave," will give an illustrated lecture on the life of the primitive people who live on the little tropical island of the Caribean, named La Gonave.

Social and Recreational Opportunities

Every State Teachers Association program is arranged so as to provide a well-balanced ration of work and fun. The various sections, the Interscholastic League and the colleges of Texas all arrange meetings where old acquaintances can be renewed and new ones formed. These are breakfasts, luncheons, or dinners.

Usually W. T. has had a breakfast, but this year a banquet will be given at the Crystal Ballroom of the Herring Hotel, with Felix Phillips of Amarillo as toastmaster. Miss Edna Graham is chairman of the faculty committee which has made the arrangements.

The Chambers of Commerce of Amarillo and Canyon have united to make it possible to take visitors who wish to go to the Palo Duro Park.

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, cooperating with the boys of the T-Anchor Ranch, has arranged for a luncheon for the History section at the Ranch headquarters, and the Museum will be open Friday to all visitors who wish to see it. Mr. Sheffy, Miss Barlow and Miss Debo are in charge of this.

Dozens of other affairs, some large, others small and intimate, have been planned for the entertainment of the visitors. Since many of them have never been in this section of the State before, all those connected with the arrangements have worked to give them the most comprehensive view of this part of Texas that can be had in three days.

Both students and faculty of W. T., as well as the Canyon

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving time is with us again. The annual day upon which we are to take a sort of inventory of ourselves, and of our surroundings, so far as our material and spiritual blessings are concerned, is an event in which all of our People take peculiar interest. It does us a great deal of good to check up on ourselves and see just what we as individuals are accomplishing, or failing to accomplish.

Of course there are a lot of people in the world today who have little for which they can truly be thankful on this Thanksgiving Day. That is always true. Perhaps there are many, many more today than usual.

So far as Randall county is concerned, there are few who can really say that everything is against them, and that they can find nothing for which to be thankful. There are few people in this community who cannot truly thank God today for what they have, instead of being remorseful for failing to have the things which they think they ought to have.

There is plenty of food for all.

There is an abundance of good, pure air, and sunshine, with clear sparkling water, which has brought usually good health to the county.

There have been fine rains for the growing crops.

There are 7,000 good neighbors, whom we call friend, and who sympathize with each other in distress, and smile with us in our happiness. They are a liberty loving, god-fearing people—no better to be found on the face of the earth.

It's true that no one has any extra cash. Likewise in abundant times, the majority of the people have not all the money they would like to have. Likewise, this is not the first time money has been scarce, and neither will it be the last time that money will be hard to get hold of. There is still some money left, a little for all, and not too much for any.

Just be thankful today that we have so many blessings which are so evident upon every hand, and thank God that it is no worse.

THE HIGHWAY SITUATION

The meeting between the Commissioners Court, the City Commission and a number of citizens last week for the purpose of trying to determine what the city might do with the highway situation, was most harmonious. It is believed that work will start soon to complete the highway program in Randall county, so far as the money on hand is concerned.

The citizens of Canyon feel that the federal government's Bureau of Good Roads was asking too much in the demand to widen at this time No. 9 from the 18 foot pavement to 50 feet with curb and gravel. No other town has received such a demand, and there are only two blocks on No. 9 which needs any widening at this time. The citizens of Canyon admit that this work should be done both for the sake of safety and for the pdrpose of speeding up traffic at the junction of Fourth Avenue and No. 9. Representatives of the State Highway Commission agreed that this work was the only part urgent, and would recommend its acceptance.

As to whether all of the money will be spent on No. 9, so as to pave to Happy, or whether the funds will be divided so as to pave about 7½ miles in both directions from Canyon was not decided at this meeting, but will be left very largely to the recommendation of the Commissioners Court.

The City Commission feels that the widening of the two blocks will be all the city can finance during the coming year, and that the federal and state governments should not demand the impossible at this time. Bond elections are not popular at this time, especially for things which are not imperative necessities, and no one can say that the widening of No. 9 entirely through the city should be classed as a great public necessity.

YOUR CAR NEEDED

Every car in Randall county is needed Friday afternoon to bring the teachers of Texas to the Palo Duro Park, and to a visit to Canyon and the College. This is one of the biggest opportunities which has been given Canyon to show its wares to people whose business is education, and who hold the scholastic training of thousands of boys and girls in their hands, whose paths may be directed in this direction if proper courtesy is shown them Friday.

Take Friday afternoon off from your routine business and join in showing the teachers of Texas a good time.

It was an unusual gathering at the high school gymnasium Friday night when the Eagles were honored with a banquet by about fifty citizens of the community. Canyon is proud of its public schools. The football boys feel sometimes that they are not receiving all of the support that they should from the community, but all doubts were dispelled Friday night when they heard themselves and their school praised. The schools of Canyon are its greatest asset. Every citizen wishes to make the schools the very best and wants to give the students everything possible so that they may become better men and women.

Announcement from Austin indicates that Governor Sterling will not call another special session of the legislature before next July. He will do well if he refuses to call another special session before the regular session in January, 1933. Radical legislation is the result of abnormal times. Legislation passed under unusual times usually turns out to be useless legislation, as no legislation can bring back prosperity. The Governor should not be influenced to call a special session of the legislature unless something arises which cannot wait, as the people are none too sympathetic of legislation during times such as we now have.

With Thanksgiving behind us, it is time to consider Christmas shopping. Whether your Christmas shopping list is long or short, it pays to do your Christmas buying early. The business houses of Canyon are stocked with the most desirable merchandise at the very lowest prices, and will look after the shoppers' needs. Visit the stores in Canyon before you buy, and be assured that they have what you need.

BACK THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

(From Texas Commercial News)

You may have to do without a new suit of clothes this year, but don't withold that check for your chamber of commerce dues. The house may need a new coat of paint, or you may have planned to get a new car, or maybe you will have to have a fight with "friend wife" about a new fur coat, but first of all mail that check to support the enterprise of your fellow citizens and keep yourself in good standing in your community.

"Well, what's the use? What's the chamber of commerce ever done for ME?"

That is the common excuse given by every old skinflint in the world for not supporting his fellow citizens in their efforts to make their town a better place in which to live.

Perhaps your local body hasn't done much. Perhaps it couldn't do anything because it was hamstrung by the indifference, if not the active opposition of some of the "best citizens."

There is one thing dead certain, and you can check up on this and prove it for yourself. When you see a town that is absolutely dead, so dead that the crows are flying around over it to pick its bones, you will see a town which has no chamber of commerce. You will see a town where the spirit of progress and enterprise has departed, and it is "every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost."

No town ever got anywhere like that. The towns making progress and getting anywhere, are the towns where all the enterprising citizens are standing together, as one man, with their shoulders to the wheel, pushing with all their might. It can't be done any other way. In these days of keen competition, the community has got to fight to win, just as does the individual in the bitter game of life.

So "get in there and pitch." If you are behind with your dues, get it in at once. If you have been lagging in interest and refusing to serve on committees, let the gang know that you are ready for duty "for the duration," as the boys "over there" used to say. Just try that formula and see how much more you'll get out of life, and how quickly the "depression will vanish from your town."

We Are Thankful

There is plenty of Thanksgiving in our hearts today as we think of the fine friends which are ours, and the many, many blessings which have been ours throughout this year. May the peace, happiness and joy of Thanksgiving be yours in great abudance, and your happiness multiply.

FRESHNESS —that's the thing!

CAMELS are never parched or toasted

HAVE you noticed the new trend in cigarettes?—freshness is the popular thing.

That's because a fresh cigarette, as demonstrated by Camels, is something smokers have discovered as better than anything they ever tried before.

Camels are fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack because they're made fresh to start with — blended of choice, delicately mild, sun-ripened tobaccos in which the natural moisture and fragrant flavors are vigilantly safeguarded.

The tobaccos in Camels are never parched or toasted —the Reynolds method of scientifically applying heat guarantees against that.

That's why we say with so much assurance that Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh — not parched or toasted — and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

Try Camels' freshness for a change. Switch over for just one day, then change back — if you can.

News in Canyon 25 Years Ago

(From the files of the Canyon City News, November 23, 1906.)

Local Weather Record

The record for this week beginning Saturday night, will show one of the greatest snow falls on the Plains ever witnessed by man during the month of November. Snow fell constantly for almost two days and nights. Just how deep it would have been on the level is hard to say as the northwest wind which accompanied it came with such force as to carry it nearly everywhere. The drift was almost blinding and travel was practically at a standstill Sunday, Monday and Tuesday and was not very pleasant on Wednesday. In some places the snow was drifted up to ten feet high and it was a common sight to see it on a level with outhouses and fences. The News estimates the fall at one foot.

No mail landed in Canyon City from any way between Sunday and Thursday. The storm which visited us covered a vast extent of territory and where not snow it was rains and floods of it and the tie-up among the railroads was general.

The snow kept all of the pupils except about 35 from school on Monday and on Tuesday the whole school had a vacation, which by order of the trustees, was continued for the remaining days of the week.

Charlie Burrow's new residence appears bigger every time you look at it. It's going to be an up-to-date place when finished.

C. T. Word has a report from 8 of his 14 cars of cattle shipped last week. Those he heard from were cows and brought from $2.65 to $3.00 per hundred.

The Canyon Mercantile little sorrel buggy horse ran away with and smashed up their delivery wagon last Friday.

Scarcely a day but what some one is turned away from here on account of not being able to secure a residence.

I. C. Jenkins will soon have his house ready for occupancy.

Extensive prairie fires raged in Deaf Smith northwest of Hereford last week and also in Castro county. The latter fire burned off the east O Y O pasture and extended to Dimmitt says the Brand. leaving bare some 50,000 acres.

MANY SECTION MEETINGS HELD FOR CONVENTION

W. T. WILL HAVE ACTIVE PART IN PROGRAM.

College Facilities Opened to Meeting of State Teachers Association in Amarillo.

Due to her proximity to Amarillo and to her interest in anything that pertains to teaching, W. T. is taking an active part in the Texas State Teachers Association convention to be held in that city Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week, Nov. 26-28. Besides being active in making plans for the convention, many of the faculty members are to appear on the various programs, and many others are to act in other capacities. In fact, every member of the W. T. faculty was given something to do to help prepare for the reception of the visiting teachers. Also, three sections of the convention are to hold part of their meetings at the college. Arrangements for W. T.'s activities were in charge of a committee headed by S. H. Condron; other members are: F. E. Savage, T. M. Moore, R. A. Terrill, Miss Isabel Robinson, and Mrs. T. V. Reeves.

History Section

The History Section of the convention will assemble at the old T-Anchor Ranch, which is owned and operated by the college, Friday noon for an old-fashioned chuck wagon dinner, a joint project of the history department of the college, the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, which is going to furnish the utensils, and the College Farm. This gronp will also be shown through the museum of the Historical Society.

Art Section

The Art Department of the college is planning a studio tea for the Art Section of the T. S. T. A. Friday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock in honor of Louise D. Tessin, noted illustrator, and Florence Hale, president of the N. E. A. It is to be served in the Home Economics dining room by the Home Economics Department, and Wallace R. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Coffee will entertain the guests with music. The Phidias Art Club of the college will have the original George Inness painting, "Evening," which has been borrowed from the Metropolitan Museum of New York, hung in the dining room in honor of the guests. Members of the senior class of the Art Department will conduct the guests to the Historical Society museum, thence to the College Art Department to see an exhibit of student work, and finally to the Home Ec dining room, where they will be welcomed by Isabel Robinson and Miltia Hill of the Art Department, for a cup of tea and an opportunity to meet the honor guests informally. They will then be conducted back to Amarillo in time for dinner. Miss Isabel Robinson is in charge of arrangements.

Deans of Women

Wednesday morning at 11:00 at the regular college assembly, Dr. Sarah Sturtevant, director of personnel at Columbia University, will be the main speaker. Her subject will be "Values." The Deans of Women Section of the convention will be guests at this lecture. Afterwards there will be an informal tea in honor of Dr. Sturtevant in Miss Lowes' kindergarten room in the Education building. Mrs. J. A. Hill and Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick will pour, and among the guests will be Mrs. Earl Wyatt, state president of the A. A. U. Another feature of the portion of the program for the deans of women which is to be held here is an invitation tea Friday afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 at Cousins Hall in honor of the deans of women. Dean of Women Green is in charge of arrangements.

Still another section of the convention may hold some sessions here if plans of Dr. Harris M. Cook, Dean of Men in the College, mature. He has invited the Deans of Men's Section to hold some of their sessions here.

O'Keefe, is to be put on by four college girls. Next is a pageant, "A Hill-y Road," representing Dr. Hill's life from a little boy to the present day, written by Mrs. Tommie Montfort, directed by Mrs. Irby Carruth, and acted by Demonstration School students. Two songs by Bill Dawes, '31, are to be followed by "Alma Mater" by the group. Miss Edna Graham is in charge of arrangements.

Visitors are invited to inspect the college plant and the museum. Visiting hours are from 3 to 5 Thursday and Friday and from 9 to 12 Saturday; during those hours guides will be on hand to conduct parties through the plant. The museum will be open for inspection at any time.

SOCIETY PLANS TO ERECT MUSEUM BUILDING NEXT YEAR.

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, which is to play an important part in the entertainment of the history section of the T. S. T. A. convention, has become a vital part of the West Texas State Teachers College, which sponsors the society, since its organization in 1921, and it is a thriving organization.

It was organized to preserve relics of a fast-disappearing phase of Panhandle history, and it has made rapid strides in this work. The Society now has a splendid collection of valuable historical materials which have been loaned and donated by more than 200 different people. Some of the most valuable individual collections are those given by the Capitol Syndicate with headquarters in Chicago; Col. Chas. Goodnight, nationally-known Panhandle pioneer; W. G. Baxter of Dimmitt, who has a large and valuable collection in the museum of the Society; Floyd V. Studer of Amarillo, who has loaned much valuable material to the Society; and many others.

The Society has a membership of about 200, including in its ranks professional and business men and pioneers of the Panhandle. T. D. Hobart of Pampa is president of the organization, and L. F. Sheffy, of the history department of the college, is secretary. The board of directors are T. D. Hobart, Judge H. E. Hoover of Canadian, Horace Russell of Amarillo, W. H. Patrick of Clarendon, and Pres. J. A. Hill of Canyon.

Museum Building Planned

The Society is faced with the problem of adequately housing its valuable collections. At present it has the use of two rooms in the Administration building of the college, but not all of the material may be displayed in so small a space. Plans are being matured to start a museum building, to be located on the campus, early in 1932. The state has appropriated $25,000 for the erection of this building, and this sum is to be supplemented by an equal amount raised by popular subscription. More than half of this sum has been raised. When this building is erected it will be the first museum building in Texas.

The museum will be open Friday and Saturday for the convenience of convention visitors, and the general public is also invited to take advantage of this opportunity to visit the museum.

Zita Breezes

The cold weather didn't keep a large attendance coming to P. T. A. Saturday night. A good program was rendered by the school children. After which we had refreshments of hot chocolate, coffee and two kinds of pie. Let's all be back at the next P. T. A.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Upchurch.

Henry Gwin spent Thursday night with R. P. Hales.

The school children will get a holiday Thanksgiving.

We have gotten some rain, and it turned colder in the week, forcing the farmers to quit their work in the fields.

SINCLAIR OPALINE

NO WAX—NO JELLY—PURE PARAFINE BASE

Petroleum Jelly—a helpful part of every first aid kit—a harmful part of motor oils. For unless petroleum jelly is removed from your motor oil by special treatment the oil will have a deceptive body—a body that promises perfect lubrication when cold, but turns water-thin in your engine after a dozen miles.

Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil has a genuine full body. Sinclair expert refiners remove petroleum jelly from Opaline at as low as 60 degrees F. below zero—a point much lower than is required for just the removal of wax.

Opaline's body varies little in heat or cold; therefore can be applied to your engine according to the Sinclair Law of Lubrication—a law based on the fact that the space which separates the pistons from their cylinder walls grows wider as the car grows older. For example, a car with 15,000 miles on its speedometer will lose compression and power unless it gets a heavier grade of oil than it got at 3,000 miles.

Sinclair Opaline is refined in several grades— one of which is designed to fit your engine in its present state of wear. We have a Sinclair Law of Lubrication Index which tells you the grade of Opaline your require.

BURTON TALKS ON GEOLOGY

An interesting talk on geology was given in the vocations class Friday by S. D. Burton of W. T. S. T. C.

He spoke on the oil geologist, the mining engineer, and the paleontologist who makes a study of the fossils and geological history.

"Many scientific instruments such as the seismograph and the magnetic rod are now coming into prominence as dectectors of metals. These instruments will help the geolopists until in the future a geological map will be made of the United States," he stated.

Time and again it has been demonstrated that the things a man doesn't worry about are much worse than the things he does worry about.

Two Aquariums Form a Part of Science Dept.

Among the interesting sights in the Canyon high school are the two aquariums in Mr. Fox's science room. These aquariums have fish, plants, snails, and one crawfish in them.

The snails are the most fascinating. They cling to the sides of the aquarium most of the time. When they move it appears to be the water that is moving since they move so smoothly. They eat from the surface of the glass with a mouth that is about the size of a pin head.

These aquariums are used chiefly by the students of bilogy.

DO NOT USE OWN PRODUCTS

Milk is a balanced food. It is of great value in the building and maintaining of health. It is almost an essential article of diet for children and young people who have not attained their majority. It makes for strong teeth, good bones and an abundance of strength and energy.

Out on the farms where milk is produced one would naturally expect to find the greatest per capita consumption. But, that is not the case. Farmers do not consume dairy products in proportion to that consumed by the average city citizen. Consumption of milk and other products in cities is governed by ability to buy, but consumption of milk in the country is low for other reasons. What those reasons are we are unable to determine, especially at a time when prices are low and there is but little profit in selling. We have known many cases, when butter fat was high, of farmers hauling cream to town and returning with a pound or two of oleomargarine. That act, in itself, was a display of poor business judgment as well as lack of knowledge concerning the food value of good butter. When farmers and their families refuse to use liberal quantities of milk in times of surplus and patronize competitors, they have but little excuse to complain of low prices.

Surveys were recently made in several of the leading dairy states, one in which the dairy industry produces 59 per cent of the farmers' income, and it was discovered that one out of every four growing children received but a cup or less of milk per day and only 13 per cent of all the children in rural districts drank as much as one quart of milk per day.

Although there has been a decrease in the consumption of dairy products in some of our cities, due, it is said to economic conditions. Canadians drink 100 per cent more milk than they did 10 years ago. The average consumption in Canada is 470.8 pounds of milk per capita per annum. In the United States it is 458 pounds. The average consumption in rural districts is far below the average for the nation.

If the farm families would use their share of dairy products, or as much as they should, considering the fact that it is their own product, the surplus would soon be removed.—Farm and Ranch.

Quite a few citizens remember when they kicked as much about some noises that came out of the organ in the parlor as they now kick about some noises that come out of the radio.

"Uncle Tommy" Clark Gives Program Thurs.

Uncle Tommy Clark presented a very entertaining program of negro readings Thursday to the Canyon high school students.

He opened the program by telling of his own early experiences with negroes and a few of the most important negro poets.

The readings consisted of the following selections: "Little Brown Baby" by Paul L. Dunbar; "Dogwood Blossoms" by Marion McClennan; "Creation" by James W. Johnson; and "Black Mammies" by J. W. Holloway.

Since all of these were written by negro writers they were of very great interest to the students.

Mr. Clark will be welcomed back any time it is possible for him to come.

Chapel

Tuesday, Nov. 17, in chapel, the boys Physical Education Department of the high school gave a demonstration of some very important facts concerning first aid.

Coach Brady, assisted by Curtis Bell, Johnie Wilson, Willard Middleton, Wilford Toylor, Ernest Wiggins, and Clarence Wooten showed the correct bandaging for a sprained ankle, a sprained thumb, a broken finger, and a sprained knee.

Following this Johnie Wilson told of the causes of water on the knee or elbow.

In conclusion Coach Brady explained the first things to do in case of a snake bite and how to determine whether or not the snake was poisonous.

Fans and Eagles Enjoy Banquet on Friday Night

A banquet held at the gymnasium Friday night was attended by one hundred pesons—members of the Eagles football squad, faculty members and football fans of the city.

The Home Economics girls served a bountiful turkey dinner of four courses as follows:

Fruit Cocktail
Turkey
Dressing Giblet Gray
Creamed Cauliflower Swwet Potatoes
Cranberry Mold Mint Jelly
Cariation Salad Apple Cider
Parker House Rolls Butter
Pumpkin Pie Whipped Cream
Coffee Mints

Following the banquet the following program was given:

Toastmaster—Coach Edgar Brady
Football '31—Principal McDonald.
Bouquets—Dan F. Sanders.
Football '31—Gordon Thompson.
Reading—Wilmoth Gamble.
Futures—Supt. Carruth.
Building the School and Town—Representative Warwick.

Coach Brady called upon the following who made short talks: Mitchell Jones, Lee Foster, Dr. H. A. Brown, W. A. Warren, W. C. Black, Fred E. Wortham, Geo. Cox, J. H. Cox, W. H. Stroud.

Owen Miller was elected by the Eagles as captain.

In his talk Mr. Warwick stressed the value of clear, sane athletics by saying that as long as athletics were not commercialized that they were one of the greatest factors in school for maintaining young manhood. He complimented the Eagles for having the type of athletes which he praised.

He believed the town should give the Eagles their full support and that every boy in Randall county who has any desire to participate in athletics should go to the Canyon high school. This would be good for the town, the public school, and the college, for the boys would be receiving training which might lead to their making good players for the college. They would have a better chance than those who went to a school where this type of athletics was not given.

The team appreciates this advice from Representative Warwick and sincerely hopes that they may live up to the standard that he set before them.

Canyon Eagles Begin Season of Basketball

The Purple Eagles dropped their moleskins and donned their flimsy basketball suits November 12, the day following Armistice, when they malloped the gridmen from Claude in the last game of the season.

Coach Brady is working his quintet into their best early. A two full weeks' start on the season is attained by the beginning practice at the time mentioned.

There are several letter men from the past year back to cast their lot with the Eagles and any vacant places will find good material.

C. H. S. Debaters Prepare for Year's Tourney's

Continuing their work on the question, "Resolved, that the United States should adopt plan for unemployment insurance," the Debate club met at the regular time Monday and again after chapel on Tuesday.

This question is a good one and the present unemployment situation gives the debaters some good material in facts to base their points on.

At the next meeting each member of the club is to give a four minute talk on the question for debate.

HOME EC SERVES BANQUET.

The second and third year Home Economic girls prepared and served the football banquet last Friday night.

The girls who served were: Ola Visage, Louise Wester, Maxine Middleton, Margaret Tankersky, Johnnie Wallace, Lula Hickcox, Nannie Archer, Rosa Cash, and Eulalie Moore.

Winter is really here, and with it comes added reasons for health precautions. Cold weather often brings on colds. We fail to change our clothing to suit the weather. An entire winter can be spoiled by hang-on colds and bad health. Here are sixteen rules of health that if followed would do much to avoid sickness in the winter time.

1. Ventilate every room you occupy.
2. Wear light, loose and pourous clothes.
3. Seek out-of-door acupation and recreation.
4. Avoid over-eating and over-weight.
5. Avoid excess of high protein food, such as meat, flesh foods, eggs.
6. Eat some hard, bulky, or raw foods daily.
7. Eat slowly and taste your food.
8. Use sufficient water internally and externally.
9. Secure thorough intestinal elimination daily.
10. Stand, sit and walk arect.
11. Do not allow poisons and infections to enter the body.
12. Keep teeth, gums and tongue clean.
13. Work, play, rest, sleep in moderation.
14. Breath deeply; take deep breathing exercises several times a day.
15. Keep serene and wholehearted.

Graduate Work Fills Acute Need

Educational institutions in the Panhandle have progressed so rapidly that there is beginning to be a great demand for teachers whose training extends beyond the limits of undergraduate work. In other words, they want teachers with master's degrees. The demand has become so great that often the quest for teachers so qualified extends outside the state. Sensing the acute need, the Board of Regents authorized the Teachers Colleges to offer graduate work. The following is taken from a bulletin on graduate work:

The administration of the West Texas State Teachers College believes that in order to build well development must be slow and must be coordinated with the physical condition and teaching force at hand. Due to this fact, graduate work will be begun on a limited plan. Therefore all students doing graduate work will be required to major in Education and do minor in one or two other subjects. The following departments will function in the graduate school: Chemistry, Education, English, Geography, Government and Economics, History, Mathematics, Sociology, and Spanish. The fundamental objective of all the work will be the development of a higher order of teaching. Students working for a Master's Degree will be expected to do three-quarters of residence work, approximately half of it in the major field, the other half in one or two minor subjects. The student will be expected to write a thesis and will be required to demonstrate his efficiency as a teacher. The control of the work in the graduate school will be in charge of a Graduate Council appointed by the President. All teahers having charge of work in the major subject must have the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, and all teachers having charge of work in minor fields must have at least one year of graduate work beyond the Masters Degree.

On account of the delay in legislative matters, it has been impossible up to the present time to issue a detailed statement of the work, and to publish the individual courses which will be offered. Students desiring to do graduate work in the West Texas State Teachers College should ask for further information concerning this work. Write the Chairman of the Graduate Council or the Registrar.

WE ARE THANKFUL—

We are truly thankful today for the many blessings which are ours and which will continue to be ours, regardless of material prosperity.

We have a host of friends; the love of our family; and faith in God—three things that money cannot buy—three things that depression cannot take away—three things that prosperity cannot restore.

We give thanks today for the many blessings which we enjoy, and may all of you have the same good fortune to enjoy these blessings, is our wish for this Thanksgiving day.

Our Pledge for Thanksgiving

As we recount our blessings on this day of Thanksgiving, we are reminded that the deepest satisfaction is always to be found in Giving, rather than in Receiving.

We are thankful for the privilege of GIVING SERVICE—thankful for the privilege of providing an abundance of warmth for the homes of Canyon; thankful for the privilege of providing convenient, ready heat to replace the troublesome fire-building of former days; thankful for the privilege of giving the housewives of Canyon clean heat with no ashes to carry out and no pots to scour.

And we are thankful for the public confidence which has rewarded our efforts to serve.

So on this Thanksgiving Day we renew our pledge of service and of improving that service in every way possible.

College Plant Has Replacement Value of Over $1,600,000

West Texas State Teachers College was located at Canyon by the location board of the State, consisting of A. B. Davidson, State Superintendent R. B. Cousins, and Honorable John Marshall, speaker of the House. This establishment was made possible by authority of a bill passed by the Legislature in 1909. Work began on the first building in March, 1910, and was completed in November, 1910 at a cost of $86,000. Canyon donated the site, which was valued at $100,100. The state appropriation amounted to $50,000, and the balance of this sum was spent on campus improvements, the president's home, and library equipment.

The first administration building was destroyed by fire in March, 1914, and construction on the present building began in the winter of 1914. The cost of the building was $376,000, but the present replacement value is $720,000. The ispresent administration building is the most fire proof, best constructed, and largest education building owned by the State of Texas.

In addition to the 40 acres which the campus originally consisted of, the college has bought 30 acres immediately adjoining the original on the north.

Buildings on the campus of W. T. besides the administration building include the president's home, valued at $9,000; music hall, valueded at $3,400; men's gymnasium, $27,000; field house, $10,000; stadium, $11,000; hospital, $2,300; Cousins hall, valued with equipment at $225,000; Randall Hall, $26,000; Educational building, $275,000. The education building at W. T. is held as a model, for its purposes in the Southwest. People who have made a study of this biulding believe it to be one of the best of its kind in the United States. The college also owns the T-Anchor Ranch which consists of two hundred acres and has on it a model farm and dairy. On this ranch there is also the first house built in this section.

The equipment of the entire institution of W. T. cost $336,000; the replacement value is $1,600,000.

We often wonder what civilization did when there was no gasoline or cigarettes to tax for revenue to keep going.

THANKSGIVING

——Recognizing that "God is the giver of every good and perfect gift," we turn our minds this day to Thanksgiving for the benefits that are ours.

——It becomes any human being to stop in his struggle for material goods and take account of the good that he already enjoys.

——Living in a land of peace and plenty, any man of these United States has reason for a grateful heart today. But most of us can also take into account our homes, the love of friends, shelter and food, health, educational advantages, and the freedom to pursue our highest good in the way that seems best to us.

——For all these material and spiritual benefits, we are truly thankful.

LET'S MAKE THIS A OLD FASHIONED THANKSGIVING

1931

IN TIMES LIKE THESE when many do not have the abundance they have had, it is well to remember that THANKSGIVING DAY was established by men and women who had struggled all the year against the severe cold of the New England climate and who had barely been able to wrest a living from the barren soil of the rocky coast. Many of their loved ones had died under the strain of those hardships, but at the end of the year the remaining men and women were so thankful for their lives that they set aside a day of Thanksgiving.

REALIZING THAT HAPPINESS is not to be found in dollars alone, let us thank God for life, for homes, for ideals to work for, and for the strength to achieve them.

LET US PAUSE and give serious thought to what we as individuals, as families, as a community, as a nation, and as a world have to be thankful for today.

Convention

Chamber of Commerce and the people of Canyon are doing all possible to make this year's meeting a pleasant event for the teachers who come and for the city of Amarillo, which carries the heavy end of the responsibility.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Walker of Umbarger spent the week end in the parental A. A. Walker home.

Mrs. Lige Frieze left Wednesday for Terrill to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Tanner.

M. B. McManigal and C. C. Lollar of Happy were callers in Canyon Monday.

Wheat Prices Soar and Then Fall in The Past Week

Wheat prices went up to 48c this week, but dropped Friday back to 43c and then down to 40c which was being paid on the local markets this morning.

Many farmers brought in their wheat during the week, receiving all the way from 40c to 54c, but few succeeded in getting the top price of the week.

Synthetic rubber, according to the newspapers, has been discovered after years of experiment. A lot of time could have been saved if they had started out by analyzing a restaurant beefsteak.

Ten Scholarships Awarded Annually to W. T. Students

Many of the students attending the West Texas State Teachers College are able to stay in school on scholarships awarded by various faculty members and business firms. Ten scholarships of one hundred dollars each are awarded annually to deserving students in the different departments of the college.

This year, Miss Hazel Smith Lackey was awarded the Jennie C. Ritchie Scholarship for superior teaching in the high school of the Training Department.

The Agnes Charlton Scholarship, which is awarded to the most deserving student majoring in Spanish, has been divided this year between Howard Cox and Roxie Hoskinson.

The Faculty Scholarship, annually awarded to the Junior or Senior student making the highest grades, based on standard work, is held this year by Bertha Paltenge. The Regents Scholarship, offered annually by the Texas State Board of Teachers College Regents to a student who has completed with high rank a two or three years' college course in a teachers college is held by Audrey Cayton.

Many of the Scholarships are awarded to students doing most of their work in the Agricultural department. The Great West Milling Company Scholarship, given to a deserving student in Agriculture, was won by John Alldredge. The Kearns Grain Co. Scholarship also awarded to a student in the Agriculture department, is held by Faucette Rudolph. The Hardeman-King Grain Company Scholarship, another Agriculture award, was won by Lloyd Devin.

The Palo Duro Hog Farm Scholarship, is held by J. G. Thompson, another agriculture student.

The Harley Sadler Scholarship awarded annually to the most deserving student in Dramatic Arts is held this year by Lorene Robbins.

RADIO ADVERTISING

We wonder if everybody is as tired of listening to advertising over the radio as we are. We wonder if the people who are paying for radio advertising are getting their money's worth out of it. But at the same time we wonder how we could get many of the really wonderful programs that we hear over our radio if advertisers didn't pay for it.

Somebody has to pay for radio broadcasting. That goes without saying. Some broadcasting is paid for by political and other propagandists, and most of that sort of stuff we have listened to is pretty dreary.

In Russia we understand people hear anything but propaganda thru their radio sets. In France the government owns all the radio stations but lease time on the air to advertisers who, we understand, do not make any very successful attempts at entertainment. In England there is a fairly liberal system of government control of broadcasting. Only one company is licensed to broadcast and it operates all of the stations in the British Isles. It gets its revenue from annual tax of ten shillings, or about $2.50 on each receiving set. You cannot have a receiving set in England without paying this tax. The government collects the money and divides it with the broadcasting company which develops and puts on programs of entertainment and education, but there is always a government censor listening in and there is a decided limitation of free expression of ideas and opinions over the radio.

The last thing we want in America is that kind of government censorship. Freedom of speech and of the press is one of the fundamental principals of our democracy. There is always a bureaucratic clique in Washington which would like to control not only all radio broadcasting but the newspapers and all public speakers as well. The worst thing that could happen to America liberty would be to let government or any part of the government prescribe what people may think or say.

Probably, on the whole, our American system of letting advertisers pay for our entertainment is the best. We certainly get better entertainment over the radio than they do anywhere else, from all reports, just as we have better newspapers in America because our newspaper advertisers would use a little more restraint and a great many fewer words in telling us about the merits of their wares.—Clipped.

Growing Pecans On The Plains.

W. W. McWhorter, who lives between Seminole and Andrews, planted a number of pecans around a windmill pool about twenty years ago. About two dozen of these trees reached maturity and have borne steadily for the last ten or twelve years.

While the nuts were planted of an unimproved, native variety, brought from the Hill Country, the fruit produced are exceptionally large and of fine flavor. Mr. McWhorter is said to have sold $25.00 worth of pecans from one tree last year, and is a demonstration of what can be done on the sandy loam lands of this section.

Those who have water available and who will give a small grove of pecan trees good attention for the first few years, can have a steady annual income from a small expenditure in a very few years by giving attention to pecans. Perhaps the greater incentive to the growing of berries, fruits and nuts on the South Plains will be that a good local market will always absorb all that will be grown.—Levelland Herald.

Plenty of men would be rich if they could make their earnings reach as far as they stretch them when talking.

The best mathematics we know is multiplying the joys, dividing the sorrows and adding to the happiness of others.

The bride's first biscuits may be awful, but they can't be much worse than the groom's first batch of beer.

It is said that the advent of the auto has increased swearing fifty percent. But look how it has cut down horse-stealing.

Wheat and cotton are not the only things of which this country has an over-production. How about an over-production of laws?

Many a father has discovered by now that it's easier to get a daughter off his hands than it is to keep a son-in-law on his feet.

Any motorist who thinks laws are not enforced in America should try parking alongside a fire hydrant.

The motorist who says the auto has come to stay may have occasion to change his mind if he misses a payment on it.

Sunday used to be a day of peace. Now it's the day they bring home the pieces.

Current events in naval circles suggest that the naval anthem be changed to "Row, row, row."
